

ENVIR 386 Au 24 Seminar (1 CR)

Environmental Justice Seminar

W

Co-taught by Program on the Environment and EarthLab

Course Goals:

- Develop a basic understanding of the history of environmental and climate justice
- Learn about challenges and opportunities to advance environmental and climate justice efforts across sectors
- Learn about community engagement and interdisciplinary and cross-sectoral collaboration in environmental and climate justice work

Topics Covered:

Students can expect to hear from presenters who will speak on environmental justice from a variety of contexts, including public health, conservation, policy, industry, community organizing, and more. The first confirmed speaker is Isabel Carrera Zamanillo, Community Education Coordinator at Front and Centered, who will present on Sept. 25.

WHEN: Weds, 4:30–5:20pm

WHERE: Wallace Hall (ACC) 012 or Zoom

REGISTER
(in person)

If you are enrolled in the in-person section of this course, you will only receive credit if you attend in person.

REGISTER
(Zoom)

If you are enrolled in the Zoom section of this course, you will receive credit if you attend virtually via Zoom during the scheduled course time. This course is synchronous, which means that you must attend the course at the scheduled time.